

- The Botanical Alchemist of Nefta -

"A collection of vibrational treatments where the soul of flowers meets the power of the earth, creating beauty rituals designed to harmonize body and mind to the rhythm of the oasis."

- Collection 'Unique Flower Essences' (30ml) -

Apricot Blossom Essence (Prunus armeniaca)

'The flower of transition' is intended for people suffering from internal mental and emotional tensions (turmoil, conflict, anger), difficulty getting through seasonal changes or life events and having emotional behavior that is sometimes moody or extreme.

Acacia Karroo (Vachellia karroo) flower essence

'The flower of the guardian of the heart' is intended for people who feel vulnerable to external intrusions or emotional drain. Its energy, like a soft armor, helps to firmly define personal boundaries while preserving inner warmth, allowing one to remain open and authentic, even in the most demanding environments.

Lemon flower essence (Citrus Limon)

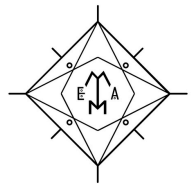

'The flower of mental clarity' is intended for people suffering from fatigue and mental congestion or toxicity associated with the nervous system; difficulty concentrating and assimilating; 'in the moon!'

Quince flower essence (Cydonia Oblonga)

'The flower of the balanced heart' is intended for people who are unable to find the balance between strength and power on one side and affection and tenderness on the other, often resulting in dysfunctional or inconsistent parenting, relationship or leadership behavior.

All the flower essences were created from desert flowers, the Jerid salt lake and the Nefta oasis

Flower essence of sleepy Hibiscus (Malvaviscus Penduliflous)

'The Flower of the Blooming Heart' is intended for reserved or introverted people in their relationships. It helps to remove blockages to encourage more flexible expression, releasing inner vitality and allowing one to open up serenely to intimate experiences and to others.

Flower essence of field bindweed (Convolvulus arvensis)

"The flower of individualism" is intended for those who feel compelled to follow a unique path, against the current of societal expectations. Its essence helps cultivate an unwavering inner direction and the courage to remain true to one's own path, even when it defies the natural flow of the environment.

Flower essence of olive (Olea europaeae)

'The flower of regeneration' is intended for people who suffer from total exhaustion; extreme mental and physical fatigue.

Flower essence of bitter Orange (Citrus Aurantium)

'The flower of new beginnings' is intended for people who suffer from a feeling of deep despair, emotional tension and distress.

Flower essence of Chinese crab Apple (Malus spectabilis)

'The flower of self-acceptance' is intended for people who feel burdened or impure, both physically and mentally. It helps to dissipate tension and obsessive thoughts, allowing one to regain a state of inner clarity and a more serene vision of oneself.

Green Essence

'A state of spiritual cleansing and purification' is inspired by the regenerative power of chlorophyll. A true energy catalyst, it acts as a protective shield against external aggressions and emotional overload. It helps restore balance and grounding, allowing one to feel fully present, protected, and revitalized in the face of environmental pressures.

- Collection 'Combinations of Flower Essences' (30ml) -

Flower essences offer a natural and holistic approach to various health management issues by addressing the emotional and stress-related components that can exacerbate symptoms.

Combination of 'Calm' flower essences

A blend of essences formulated from 5 flowers and designed to support people suffering from nervous agitation (anxiety, worry, stress, feeling overwhelmed). It helps stabilize emotions during and after periods of stress.

'Concentration' Flower Essence Combination

A blend of essences formulated from 6 flowers, designed to support those seeking optimal concentration, particularly during exam periods. It specifically addresses comprehension, assimilation, confidence, determination, and anxiety, while also promoting calm and inner peace.

Combination of flower essences 'Sugar Harmony'

A blend of essences formulated from six flowers and designed to support the path towards stable glucose regulation. In flower therapy, physical imbalances are often seen as a reflection of deeper mental and spiritual disharmonies. This formula addresses these root causes, rebalancing your emotional state to treat the underlying patterns that contribute to sugar-related imbalances.

Combination of flower essences 'Sensual Integrity'

A combination of essences formulated from 5 flowers and designed to support people in easing any feelings of shame or negative association with sexuality, often associated with emotional and intimate distress.

Combination of flower essences 'Personalized Therapy'

For a 'personalized' flower essence to address your emotional and physical ailments, please contact us.

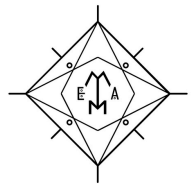

Combination of 'Transition' flower essences

A combination of essences formulated from 6 flowers and designed to support people to remain calm and patient during periods of internal and external transition (e.g., change of seasons, personal or professional situation).

'Emergency' Flower Essence Combination

A blend of essences formulated from six flowers, designed to support those outside their comfort zone. It helps maintain stillness and centeredness in the face of urgency and during periods of transition. In situations of change and chaos, it fosters calmness in decision-making.

- Collection 'Body care with flower essences' -

All our bath salts are made with Tunisian therapeutic salt from the 'Chott El Jerid' and contain flower essences, as well as a quartz stone which allows the healing vibrational frequencies of the main ingredients to infuse into the body, thanks to the conductive power of water.

'Orange Oasis' Bath Salts (180g)

An exceptional bath salt that offers a fragrant immersion with invigorating and joyful scents. On a physical level, oats and olive oil combine to soften and hydrate the skin while promoting cell repair. The synergy of precious, stress-relieving essential oils helps restore inner peace, while bitter orange blossom essence diffuses a relaxing effect on the solar plexus and abdomen. On a mental level, the therapeutic salt from Lake Jerid invites letting go by releasing accumulated tension, facilitating peaceful sleep. Finally, on an etheric level, bitter orange blossom essence supports energy regeneration for lasting harmony.

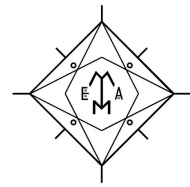

'Green Oasis' bath salts (180g)

An exceptional bath salt that offers a fragrant immersion in fresh, herbaceous, and invigorating scents. On a physical level, the synergy of rosemary, basil, and bay leaf combines to awaken the senses and support the body during moments of diffuse fatigue or mental overload. The essence of wild apple blossom provides targeted relaxation, fostering a gentle sense of stability and mindful presence. On a mental level, this treatment invites a true "reset to neutral," freeing the mind from tension to restore complete harmony between body and mind. Finally, on an etheric level, the essence of wild apple fully supports energetic regeneration and reinforces the overall intention of balance and inner clarity.

'Purple Oasis' bath salts (180g)

An exceptional bath salt that offers a fragrant immersion with vibrant, refreshing, and resinous notes. On a physical level, the energizing synergy of lemon, eucalyptus, and peppermint combines with the profound comfort of wintergreen and copaiba balsam to soothe overworked muscles after exertion. Quince and acacia flower essences provide targeted action, promoting relaxation of tired bodies. On a mental level, this treatment invites you to release tension and rediscover a serene presence for a highly restorative experience. Finally, on an etheric level, the combined action of floral essences fully supports resilience and energy regeneration to restore overall comfort and profound emotional peace.

'UL' scented balm (15G)

A delicate encounter between the mysterious warmth of oud and the elegance of rose. Its melting texture, enriched with shea butter, transforms into a silky oil for a subtle fragrance. Infused with essences of hibiscus, pomegranate, and Damask rose, it cultivates emotional softness and sensual harmony deep within the body.

IFULKI' Hair Vitality Elixir (30ml)

An exceptional treatment for stronger, more vibrant hair. Castor and mustard oils intensely nourish and stimulate the scalp without weighing it down, enveloped in the fresh notes of peppermint and cedar. On the ethereal side, walnut and olive blossom essences restore a profound balance of renewal.

- 'Earth of Nefta' Collection -

'TIRRIST' Green Ilite Clay Powder (150G)

Raw clay from Nefta, sun-dried to preserve its active properties. On a physical level, its high mineral and trace element content provides an intense purifying action that absorbs impurities and detoxifies the skin. On an etheric level, this clay from the Tunisian Sahara offers a powerful grounding effect and reconnects the body to the energy of nature.

'ARJAF' Head and Temple Balm (15G)

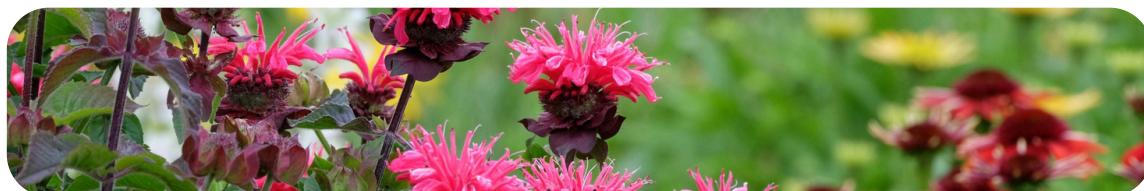

A portable treatment with olive oil, shea butter, and beeswax, ideal for applying to the temples in case of cranial tension. On a physical level, green clay and the synergy of peppermint, lavender, and chamomile provide immediate soothing freshness. On an etheric level, lemon blossom essence brings clarity and lightness to free the mind from overwork.

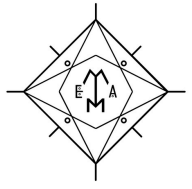

'ASFAR' Clay Balm (50G)

An intensive protective treatment with olive oil and beeswax that forms a natural barrier to soothe and regenerate dry or exposed skin. On a physical level, Nefta green clay intensely purifies and immediately calms feelings of discomfort. On an etheric level, wild apple essence brings an overall dimension of purity, balance, and clarity.

'Oasya' soap (50G)

A handcrafted cleansing bar with a woody scent of hinoki, cedar, and ylang-ylang. On a physical level, Nefta green clay gently purifies and balances the skin without drying it out. On an etheric level, wild apple essence promotes comfort, self-acceptance, and profound skin clarity.
