

ESSENCES AMAZIGH

- The Botanical Alchemist of Nefta -

"A collection of vibrational treatments where the soul of flowers meets the power of the earth, creating beauty rituals designed to harmonize body and mind to the rhythm of the oasis."

- Collection of 'Flower Essences' (30ml) -

Apricot Blossom (Prunus armeniaca) flower essence

'The flower of transition' is intended for people suffering from internal mental and emotional tensions (turmoil, conflict, anger), difficulty getting through seasonal changes or life events and having emotional behavior that is sometimes moody or extreme.

Acacia Karroo (Vachellia karroo) flower essence

'The flower of the guardian of the heart' is intended for people who feel vulnerable to external intrusions or emotional drain. Its energy, like a soft armor, helps to firmly define personal boundaries while preserving inner warmth, allowing one to remain open and authentic, even in the most demanding environments.

Lemon (Citrus Limon) flower essence

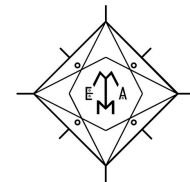

'The flower of mental clarity' is intended for people suffering from fatigue and mental congestion or toxicity associated with the nervous system; difficulty concentrating and assimilating; 'in the moon'.

Quince (Cydonia Oblonga) flower essence

'The flower of the balanced heart' is intended for people who are unable to find the balance between strength and power on one side and affection and tenderness on the other, often resulting in dysfunctional or inconsistent parenting, relationship or leadership behavior.

All the flower essences were created from desert flowers, the Jerid salt lake and the Nefta oasis

Sleepy Hibiscus (Malvaviscus Penduliflous) flower essence

'The Flower of the Blooming Heart' is intended for reserved or introverted people in their relationships. It helps to remove blockages to encourage more flexible expression, releasing inner vitality and allowing one to open up serenely to intimate experiences and to others.

Field bindweed (Convolvulus arvensis) flower essence

"The flower of individualism" is intended for those who feel compelled to follow a unique path, against the current of societal expectations. Its essence helps cultivate an unwavering inner direction and the courage to remain true to one's own path, even when it defies the natural flow of the environment.

Olive (Olea europeae) flower essence

'The flower of regeneration' is intended for people who suffer from total exhaustion; extreme mental and physical fatigue.

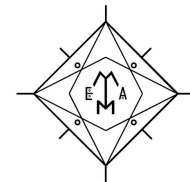

Bitter Orange (Citrus Aurantium) flower essence

'The flower of new beginnings' is intended for people who suffer from a feeling of deep despair, emotional tension and distress.

Chinese crab Apple (Malus spectabilis) flower essence

'The flower of self-acceptance' is intended for people who feel burdened or impure, both physically and mentally. It helps to dissipate tension and obsessive thoughts, allowing one to regain a state of inner clarity and a more serene vision of oneself.

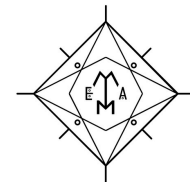

Retam (Retama Raetam) flower essence

'The Ember Flower' — for those who feel depleted to their very core, drained of vital energy after a long period of struggle. It helps rekindle the inner flame, restoring faith in oneself and the capacity to continue, even when everything seems extinguished.

Green Essence

'A state of spiritual cleansing and purification' is inspired by the regenerative power of chlorophyll. A true energy catalyst, it acts as a protective shield against external aggressions and emotional overload. It helps restore balance and grounding, allowing one to feel fully present, protected, and revitalized in the face of environmental pressures.

- Collection of 'Flower Essence Blends' (30ml) -

Flower essence blends offer a natural and holistic approach to emotional and vibrational wellbeing, working with the full spectrum of inner states — from acute crisis to deep transformation, from identity to intimacy, from exhaustion to finding one's direction.

'Calmness' flower essence blend

Formulated from 5 flowers and designed to support those experiencing nervous agitation — anxious, worried, overwhelmed, or stretched too thin. It stabilises the emotional body during and after periods of stress, and helps restore a natural softness without requiring you to lower your guard.

'Emergency' flower essence blend

Formulated from 6 flowers and designed for acute crisis states — when everything arrives at once and staying upright becomes the only priority. It works simultaneously on overwhelm, dissociation, emotional shock, extreme contraction, total freeze, and imminent inner collapse. Six responses for six faces of the same emergency.

'Focus' flower essence blend

Formulated from 6 flowers and designed to support clear, sustained attention when the mind drifts, scatters, or loses its centre. It works on the quality of inner direction — the capacity to know where you are going and stay there — while dissolving cognitive fog, recalling the absent mind to the present moment, and holding concentration steady even when the environment becomes chaotic.

'Sensual Integrity' flower essence blend

Formulated from 6 flowers and designed to support those carrying shame or negative associations around sensuality, intimacy, and the body. It gently accompanies a return to one's physical self — to natural cycles, to the capacity to receive pleasure, and to relating to the body with kindness rather than judgment.

'Sugar Harmony' flower essence blend

Formulated from 6 flowers and designed to support a stable relationship with glucose and sugar cravings. In flower therapy, physical imbalances often reflect deeper emotional and mental disharmonies. This formula works on the underlying drivers — inner confusion, social pressure to conform, and the exhaustion that reaches for quick fuel — rather than the symptom itself.

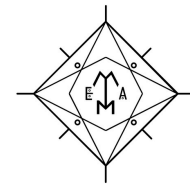

'Transition' flower essence blend

Formulated from 6 flowers and designed to support those moving through deep change — personal, professional, or identity-level. It protects the vulnerability of the in-between, restores energy depleted by the length of the process, and holds both what is being left behind and what is not yet arrived — simultaneously.
